SPAIN ADMITS A WAR

Cuban Insurrection Assuming Gigantic Proportions.

GEN. CAMPOS GETTING SCARED.

He Asks For Six More Regiments, but the Government Sends Ten and Are Holding Ten More in Readiness—A Large Expedition Will Soon Leave the United States to Aid the Insurgents.

MADRID, June 7.—Captain General Martinez de Campos has sent a cable message to the Spanish government announcing that several insurgent leaders are expected to effect a landing in Cuba shortly, and he adds that owing to fresh disturbances on the island, possibly the recent invasion of the province of Santa Clara by the Cuban insurgents, he asks for a reinforcement of six battalions of infantry.

The government seems to take a less sanguine view of the situation of affairs than does the captain general of that island, for the cabinet after thoroughly discussing the situation from all its standpoints, has decided to send 10 additional battalions of infantry to Cuba without delay.

It is expected that in addition to the 10 battalions of infantry another general will be sent to assist Captain General Martinez de Campos suppressing the insurrection in the island of Cuba.

The loan for the Cuban expedition will be 15,000,000 of pesetas.

General Azcaraga, minister of war, announced at a session of the cabinet council that in addition to the 10 battalions of infantry dispatched to Cuba, 10 other battalions are held in readiness for an emergency.

GREATEST MOVEMENT YET.

A Large Expedition Will Soon Leave the United States to Aid the Insurgents.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 7.—A special to the Florida Citizen from Fernandina says: The masterstroke of the Cuban revolutionary movement in this country will occur within three days. The principal leaders of the party in the United States gathered at Jacksonville three days ago, but Wednesday afternoon quietly slipped over here, took carriages and went to Ocean Beach, where they stopped at the Strathmore hotel.

From an adjoining room the Citizen correspondent overheard the whole of the deliberations, which began at 8 p.m., and lasted until a late hour. The six men who composed this revolutionary board were Charles, M. Decespedes, Gonzalo De Quesada, Colonel Enrique Collazo, Lieutenant Tomas Collazo, and two prominent citizens of Fernandina, who have appeared conspicuously before the public on former occasions, in connection with the Cuban cause.

The party gathered around a large table, on which were spread numerous charts of Cuba, the adjacent territory and the United States coast line from Charleston to a point far down the peninsula of Florida. As appeared from the conversation, most of the expeditions hitherto has gone from Santo Domingo, but the board decided that the next big effort must be made from the United States coast, south of Charleston, not only because of the necessary character and strength of the expedition, but because of the innumerable bays, sounds and rivers in which a fleet could, with care, hide or repel a much stronger force.

A fleet of eight draught could go unnoticed through Bahama channels and then at night make short runs for the northern coast of Cuba, where there are many bays easy of access for an expedition, and poorly guarded. Such an expedition was recently conducted by the yacht Corona, which sailed from Satilla river, Georgia, a few weeks ago, and made a landing in the bay near Gibara. All this was preliminary. Then came plans, and so far as completed at that sitting, they were as follows: "That, whereas, as all plans for the carrying forward the insurrection in Cuba had hitherto worked most satisfactorily. The eastern half of the island had risen; the western half was ripe for rebellion, and the Spanish opposition was growing weaker, owing to the terrible yellow fever and diseases from bad food supplied to the Spanish army. Therefore, now had come the time for a tremendous effort, which should carry a great expedition from the United States to Cuba."

The consulting board decided the expedition should be made ready at once; that it should sail from some point between Brunswick, Ga., and Mayport, Fla.; that it should be commanded by Colonel Enrique Collazo, the war-scarred veteran of 1863 and 1878, and that the fleet should be guarded by three newly built torpedo boats of the latest pattern, and of great speed and manned by experienced seamen. Lieutenant Tomas Collazo is to be the staff officer and Colonel Collazo's small army is to be recruited from the Cubans in the United States and picked Americans from the southern states last mentioned. Men already collected by Henry Brooks, who is now in New York city and who is to accompany the expedition as a member of Collazo's staff, are also to be enrolled. Collazo is to land the expedition at some point in the province of Puerto Principe, where forces collected by Gomez and Marti will co-operate. The expedition is to land in Cuba within 30 days.

In addition to this plan of operations, the following general information was gleaned during the deliberations: That the province of Pinas del Rio has risen and that the insurgents have made more progress in the present rising of three months' duration than was made in seven years commencing 1868. That it is believed that within a month the whole island will be in arms for the Cubans and that Captain General Campos, commanding the Spanish forces, is exerting every effort to be recalled to Madrid before the arrival of the disaster which he believes sure to overwhelm Spanish arms in Cuba very soon. Moreover, that Jose Marti will be in Florida within the next 10 days.

WATCHED BY SPANISH OFFICIALS.

The United States May Be Asked to Stop the Expeditions.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—It is learned that the Spanish officials here are keeping a close watch on several supposed Cuban expeditionary movements for the purpose of furnishing information on which to request action by the United States government. One of the expeditions is believed to have started from Philadelphia. The suspected ships, it is said at the Spanish legation, are the George Childs and the Bridgeport. It is alleged that these ships触碰ed at Greenwich after clearing from Philadelphia with the ostensible purpose of making repairs, but really, it is charged, to take on arms, gunpowder and large supplies of food suitable for an expeditionary movement.

The Spanish officials connect the movement of these ships with suspicious operations at Dauphin and Cat Islands, off the mouth of the Mississippi. There are indications, they say, that the movements at gulf points will be concentrated off the coast of southern Florida. It is said that these movements are mainly the result of the recent arrival in the United States of General Quesada from Venezuela, who brought a considerable sum of money to aid the Cuban cause, and another sympathizer, who is said to have brought $30,000 from Paris.

COLIMA SURVIVORS.

Seventeen of Them Reach San Francisco.

FOUR OTHERS AT MAZATLAN.

These Were All That Were Saved From the Two Hundred People on Board the Ill-Fated Vessel—Details of the Disaster as Related by the Survivors—Telegraph Reports Confirmed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—Seventeen of the survivors of the ill-fated steamer Colima arrived in port yesterday on the San Juan. When she docked hundreds of friends and relatives of those who went down on the Colima were assembled awaiting the landing of the passengers. Groups of women, with tearstained faces and knots of anxious men implored everyone on board for tidings of the lost, all hoping against hope that there might have been some mistake in the dispatches and some name omitted among the saved. How keen was their disappointment in the face of the inevitable assurance that there was no hope, was evinced in their bitter lamentations.

On the upper deck of the steamer were few happy people whose pleasure contrasted sharply with the grief of the bereaved. These were the friends of the survivors, who were embraced and consoled at their miraculous rescue.

The Colima survivors who landed at this port yesterday are:

Passengers—A. J. Sutherland, C. H. Cushing, J. M. Thornton, P. H. Boyce, Gustav Rowan, Bruno Caid, Jose Antonio Sizzi, Jose E. Marriach, George D. Ross, Louis Sangene, A. J. Oel and Juan A. Ramos.

The crew were: O. A. Hansen, F. A. Willes, Albert Carpenter, Arthur Richardson and Tom Fish.

The following were landed at Mazatlan: Thomas Scaraboa, Domingo Alvarado, Angel Guirthez and Carlos Ramirez.

The 17 men saved from a watery grave when they had given up all hope of rescue were a sorry looking party when they arrived at the main dock. Some had their arms in slings; the heads of others were swathed in bandages. They limped as they walked, and their braces were plainly in evidence. All looked thin and showed only too plainly the effects of the terrible strain during the fearful hours when they awaited succor.

The stories of the survivors all confirmed the telegraphic accounts of the disaster. They agree that the cause of the foundering was the top-heavy condition of the Colima, due to her bulky deckload. From the beginning of the voyage south, they say, the steamer acted badly and would not answer her helm.

The storm which struck her was encountered about 9 o'clock Monday night, May 27, and blew furiously during the next 14 hours. The vessel lost steerage way, swung shoreward in the teeth of a furious southeasterly gale where she lay helplessly battered by the mighty tidal waves. The steamer lay helplessly on her side for about 15 minutes and then tipped over and sank. The women and children were drowned in their staterooms where they were confined during the gale. Those passengers who had been on deck were thrown into the sea. Many were killed and horribly mutilated by the lumber on the deck, blown by the wind and hurled on the heads of the struggling men in the water.

The raft upon which Cushing, Sutherland, Richardson and two others were afloat, drifted for about 24 hours. They gave up all hope until the San Juan hove in sight. They attracted her attention by hoisting a piece of red cloth and waving their clothes. On the raft with the passengers were two sailors. One seized a small casket of claret, of which both drank. They became drunk and quarreled. To save the lives of the rest on the raft the men say they were obliged to push one sailor, mad with drink, into the sea, where he drowned.

The passengers say there was no time to launch the boats or put on life preservers when they realized the serious plight of the Colima, and besides, the fury of the storm made it impossible to launch the boats successfully. Those who secured life preservers got them in the water, and those in the boat picked up by the San Juan clambered into her as she floated toward them struggling in the sea.

TURKEY WILL NOT YIELD.

The Sultan Declares That No Reforms Are Necessary.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 7.—The situation of affairs so far as the settlement of questions in dispute between the Turkish government and the representatives of the powers regarding reform in Armenia, is concerned, shows no improvement.

The sultan declares no changes are necessary except as modifying existing laws and as these alterations would be applicable to the whole population, he denies the right of the powers to interfere in the internal administration of the affairs of the empire while no indication has been given which appears to show that the condition of the Armenians is to be regarded in any way as exceptional. The actions of the powers are anxiously awaited.

SAUMLI GOMPERZ IMPROVING.

HOUSTON, June 7.—There seems no possibility of avoiding the mouth past, The "Katy" is now accused of giving secret rates as low as 16 cents from St. Louis on carloads. The withdrawal of the Santa Fe from the Southwestern association shows the drift of events, and within two weeks a rate war will be waged vigorously on Texas rates.

SAUMLI GOMPERZ IMPROVING.

LITTLE ROCK, June 7.—Samuel Gompers, the labor leader, who has been confined to his hotel in this city since Wednesday with gastritis, is slightly improved, and his physicians state that he is no immediate danger.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., June 7.—Elwood Meyer, engineer; Elias Botts, conductor, and William Klease, fireman, part of the crew of freight train No. 86 of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, were instantly killed yesterday in a wreck near Locustdale.

WHEN THE CIVIL WAR ENDED.

Assistant Secretary to the Boarders on Important occasions.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Another decision has been rendered by Assistant Secretary Reynolds bearing on the question of the date of the termination of the civil war and the pensionable rights of soldiers enlisting in 1865 and 1866. The conclusion reached by Mr. Reynolds is that in all these cases the question to be ascertained is whether the enlistment of the soldiers was for service in the war of the rebellion, or for the regular army. If the former, he is pensionable, and if the latter, he is not.

He says: "As to these volunteer enlistments in the regular army after the cessation of armed hostilities it can not be definitely said that their enlistment was for the war of the rebellion."

In reference to the decision of the supreme court assigning Aug. 26, 1866, as the end of the war, he says: "The reasons, however, which would admit of this holding, where the right of the parties in the cases involved might be affected by the running of a statute of limitations, can not be accepted to establish the date of termination of the war of the rebellion where the questions involved are whether an enlistment was in fact, for the war of the rebellion, and whether the service performed therunder, in furtherance of its suppression."

The secretary therefore holds that enlistments in the loyal states after April 18, 1865, when recruiting in time ceased, will not be deemed enlistment in or for the war of the rebellion and any service rendered under such enlistments will be presumed not to have been rendered in the war of the rebellion.

In the other states, territories and the District of Columbia, June 1, 1865, will be taken as the final date, as enlistments then ceased in these parts of the country, and July 1, 1865, when the blockade of the southern ports was raised, will be taken as the final date of war enlistments for the navy.

Extensive Cave-In.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 7.—An extensive mine cave-in in the old workings in the northern section of the city badly damaged several dwellings early yesterday morning and caused the occupants of many of the houses to flee in their night clothes. The squeeze came suddenly and without warning. It was caused by a "working" in the Providence Coal company's four-foot vein. The buildings affected are six double dwellings. Nobody was injured, although the movable contents of all the houses were badly damaged. The loss cannot be estimated until the surface ceases to settle. Already the damage is from $10,000 to $15,000.

SIMPSON'S LATEST.

TOPEKA, June 7.—Ex-Congressman Jerry Simpson, accompanied by his wife, will, according to a local newspaper story, leave his Medicine Lodge farm with a wagon and mule team for Topeka next Saturday. It is said that he intends to load his wagon with butter, eggs and provisions and pay his way with them by selling enough in the towns he passes through to furnish them money for expenses. His arrival here may be made the occasion of a demonstration by the local Populists. It is proposed that a procession be formed carrying banners with unpleasing references to the present state administration.

DIED ON THE SEAFLOOR.

WAYNESBURG, Pa., June 7.—John Eisiminger was hanged here yesterday for the murder of Samuel McCoy. John Eisiminger was 22 years old and had a wife and a 2-year-old child. His victim, Samuel McCoy, was in partnership in the huckster business with Mrs. Thomas Welsh. The crime was a brutal one, the only motive being robbery. On Jan. 7, while riding in a wagon with McCoy, Eisiminger shot him and robbed him of $101. After his capture he confessed.

A GREAT GAME.

The Maysville Boys Added Another Victory to Their List Thursday—Fast Work.

The Browns of Hamilton, O., with Wellner and Taylor as the battery, were not in it with Maysville's hardhitters and fine fielders at the ball park yesterday afternoon.

The game was the greatest ever put up by the home team, and it was one of the fastest ever played. One hour and fifteen minutes was the time required for the home boys to score eight runs and send the visitors off the field with nine big goose eggs chalked up to their credit. It was lively from start to finish. The Browns went out in one-two-three order in every inning, taking just twenty-seven turns at the bat.

Rieman was in the box for Maysville, and no pitcher was ever given better support on the local grounds. The visitors could find the ball but what promised to be hits time and again were killed by the fielders. Only one hit was all the Browns got. A fumble by Hays and a misjudged ball by Miller were the only errors by the home boys.

Wellner, who was a great favorite here last year, pitched for the Browns. He was as cool and speedy as ever, and struck out eight men. It takes a great pitcher however to fool the Maysville team and they touched Wellner up for nine hits.

Following is the score:

FOR ASSOCIATING WITH NEGROES
An Ohio Minister Driven Out of Georgia by White Caps.

ATLANTA, June 7.—A special to The Journal from Tuskegee, Ala., says: About 20 of the best citizens of this town gave one, Rev. Mr. Kelley, a white man from Ohio, a "surprise party" at 7 o'clock yesterday evening by calling on him and informing him, through their spokesman, Dr. W. T. Gautier, that his presence here was obnoxious and disgusting to the white people of Mason county, and especially so to the citizens of Tuskegee, and that he must leave Tuskegee and Macon county on the first train or abide the consequences.

Kelley is a white man pretending to be a minister. He claims that he was "called" to preach to the negroes of the south. He has been holding a protracted meeting here in the negro church for the past 10 days eating, sleeping and mingling altogether with the negroes, making his headquarters with one Thomas Harris, where he was found by the committee that waited on him. He is teaching and practicing social equality, which will never be submitted to by the people of this section.

TWO KILLED IN THE WILD RUSH.

GUTHRIE, O. T., June 7.—A sad sequel to the wild rush into the Kickapoo reservation was viewed in this city yesterday, when a man named Valchester, from southwest Kansas, drove through the city en route to his old home, having in his wagon a coffin containing the body of his wife and 5-year-old child, who were both killed in the rush for claims at the recent opening. In the first wild dash Valchester's wagon struck a stone, was partly overturned, throwing out the wife and little one, who were trampled to death by a score or more of horses.

Scientists Going North.
